Ring out the old, ring in the new;
Ring happy bells across the snow:
The year is going—let him go!
Ring out the false ring in the true!

NO FRIEND LIKE AN OLD FRIEND

THERE is no friend like an old friend
Who has shared our morning days,
No greetings like his welcome,
No homage like his praise

FAME is the scentless sunflower,
With gaudy crown of gold;
But friendship is the breathing rose,
With sweets in every fold

Paradise

Within each heart there lies apart
From all its cares and sorrows
A paradise which knows no sighs
A world of happy morrows;
A heaven of light, unknown to blight
Of winter bleak and dreary
Whose days are long and sweet with song
Whose hours are never weary.

What matter though earth's pathways glow
No more with springtime gladness?
What if each June has flown too soon
And left a look of Sadness
No real love so true will prove
No tones one half so tender.
No lips so pure as those which lure
The soul to visioned splendor.

CROSSING THE BAR

Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning
of the bar,
When I put out to sea,

But such a tide as moving
seems asleep,
Too full for sound and foam,
When that which drew from out the boundless deep
Turns again home.

Twilight and evening bell,
And after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness of farewell,
When I embark;

For tho' from out our bourne of Time and Place
The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my Pilot face to face
When I have crost the bar.

Tennyson.

Grow Old With Me

Grow old along with me.
The best is yet to be,
The last of life for which the first was made;
Our times are in his hand

Youth shows but half; trust God; see all, nor be afraid."

STRONGER·MEN

Do not pray for easy lives · Pray to be stronger men · Do not pray for tasks equal to your powers · Pray for powers equal to your tasks · Then the doing of your work shall be no miracle · But you shall be a miracle · Every day you shall wonder at yourself · at the richness of life which has come to you by the grace of God

pain and anguish
be thy lot
Thy heart will cheer thee when the
pain's forgot;
Do wrong for pleasure's
sake then count
thy gains
The pleasure soon
departs; the sin
remains.

Do not worry: eat three square meals a day — say your prayers — be courteous to your creditors — keep your digestion good — exercise — go slow — and go easy — Maybe there are other things that your special case requires to make you happy — but — my friend — these I reckon will give you a good lift.

The FOOT-PATH to PEACE

TO be glad of life because it gives you the chance to love and to work and to play and to look up at the stars, to be satisfied with your possessions but not contented with yourself until you have made the best of them ❧ to despise nothing in the world except falsehood and meanness ❧ and to fear nothing except cowardice ❧ to be governed by your admirations rather than by your disgusts ❧ to covet nothing that is your neighbor's except his kindness of heart and gentleness of manners ❧ to think seldom of your enemies ❧ often of your friends, and every day of Christ; and to spend as much time as you can, with body and with spirit, in God's out-of-doors ❧ these are little guide-posts on the foot-path to peace ❧ ❧

My Symphony

To live content with small means ▪ to seek elegance rather than luxury, and refinement rather than fashion ▪ to be worthy, not respectable and wealthy, not rich ▪ to study hard, think quietly, talk gently, act frankly ▪ to listen to stars and birds, to babes and sages, with open heart ▪ to bear all cheerfully, do all bravely, await occasions hurry never ▪ in a word to let the spiritual, unbidden and unconscious ▪ grow up through the common ▪ this is to be my symphony ▪

An Evening Prayer

WE beseech Thee, Lord, to behold us with favour, folk of many families and nations, gathered together in the peace of this roof ▪ Be patient still; suffer us awhile longer to endure, and (if it may be) help us to do better ▪ ▪ Bless to us our extraordinary mercies ▪ ▪ ▪

Be with our friends ▪ be with ourselves ▪ Go with each of us to rest. If any awake, temper to them the dark hours of watching; and when the day returns to us call us up with morning faces and with morning hearts – eager to labour – eager to be happy, if happiness shall be our portion – and if the day be marked for sorrow – strong to endure it.

DESTINY

Somewhere there waiteth in this world of ours
For one lone soul another lonely soul
Each choosing each through all the weary hours
And meeting strangely at one sudden goal
Then blend they like green leaves with golden flowers
Into one beautiful and perfect whole
And life's long night is ended, and the way
Lies open onward to eternal day

Edwin Arnold
